But Little Interest Manifested in Election to Be Held Tomorrow.

Democratic Nominees Practically Without Opposition-Local Issues to Be Decided-General News.

Evening Star Bureau,
No. 701 King Street,
Bell Telephone No. 106,
ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 6, 1839. There is very little interest being manfested in the local elections tomorrow. All arrangements have been completed, and it is probable the balloting will proceed quietly and that a light vote will be polled. The democratic nominees for this district have practically no opposition. Capt. S. R. Donohoe of Fairfax is the nominee for the state senate for the fourteenth senatorial district, composed of Alexandria city and the and county. James H. Loh of this city announced himself as an opponent to Mr. Hume, but hav-

counties of Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince

William. Frank Hume is the nominee for the house of delegates for Alexandria city self as an opponent to Mr. Hume, but having failed to register with the clerk of Alexandria county within the time prescribed by law his name will not be placed on the ballots.

Apart from the personality of the candidates, a matter of local interest is the fact that the state legislature to be formed will elect a United States senator. Mr. Hume has declared in favor of Senator Martin, but Capt. Donohoe has refused to express any preference between Gov. J. Hoge Tyler and the junior senator from Virginia. Both Capt. Donohoe and Mr. Hume, if elected, will go to Richmond without instructions.

A vote will be taken at the election tomorrow on the constitutional amendment authorizing the abolition of the May elections for choosing county officers. A vote will also be taken on the proposition to strike from the state constitution section 2 of article 10, which provides that no tax shall be imposed on any of the citizens of this state for catching oysters from their natural beds with tongs, but that the amount of sales of oysters so taken may be taxed at a rate corresponding to that imposed upon any other species of property.

Mrs. Risheil Dead. Mrs. Risheil Dead.

Mrs. Thomas V. Risheil died this merning about 4 o'clock at her residence on Duke street, between Royal and Fairfax streets, after a lingering illness. Deceased was about sixty years of age. She was highly esteemed here, where she was born and spent her life. Her husband, Mr. T. V. Rishell, survives her, and her children still living are Mrs. Thos. Burroughs and Mrs. Isaac Buckingham of Washington and Messrs. T. L. Rishell, Lawrence Rishell and Miss Salife Rishell of this city. Arrangements for the funeral will be made later on

Rear-End Collision.

An open switch caused a serious rear-end collision Saturday night on the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon railroad near New Alexandria, which resulted in serious damage to two motor cars and slight injuries to Motorman Frank Hall, a workman named Powers and Trolleyman Jonas Whedbee. A north-bound motor car ran into a siding to as to allow a north-bound passenger train the right of way. The switch was not closed, and the passenger train crashed into the stationary motor car on the sid-ing. Both cars were badly damaged, and were put in the power house at New Alex-andria for repairs,

Funeral services over the remains of Robert T. Grimes, who died Saturday evening, will take place from the late residence of the deceased, on King street, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Masonic ceremonies. Mr. Grimes was a native of London, England, but had lived here for several years, conducting a merchant tailor business. He was fifty-two years of age.

Messrs. Peter Brenner, John Kelley and S. O. Mr. H. T. Conner died last night at his residence on Alfred street between Prince and Duke streets after a short illness. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, C. V., will be held this evening and matters of interest acted upon. In the police court this morning Sarah Levi, colored, was fined $5 for being drunk and disorderly. Henry Posey was assessed $2.50 for assaulting Wm. Travers, and Sam. #### CHANCES IN MONTGOMERY. Forecast of the Result of Battle of Special Correspondence of The Evening Star ROCKVILLE, Md., November 6, 1899. In addition to the state nominees to be voted for in this county at tomorrow's election, there will be elected three members of the house of delegates, a state's attorney, a sheriff, three judges of the orphans' court, two county commissioners and a county surveyor. There are three county tickets in the field-republican, democratic and prohibition. The republicans have candidates for every office except that of county surveyor; the democrats have a full ticket, and the prohibitionists have nominated candidates for sheriff, judges of the orphans' court and county surveyor.

The personnel of the several tickets is as follows: follows:
Republican—For the house of delegates, Columbus W. Day, Alban G. Thomas and Henry L. Black; for state's attorney, George Minor Anderson; for sheriff, Uriah H. W. Griffith; for judges of the orphans' court, William R. Fulks, Henry C. Chaney and William T. Lynch; for county commissioners, Aaron B. Hersberger and William Eggleston Ward.

Eggleston Ward.

Democratic—For the house of delegates,
Oliver H. P. Clark, James E. Deets and Josiah J. Hutton; for state's attorney, Henry Maurice Talbott; for sheriff, Arthur Wil-llams; for judges of the orphans' court, Samuel D. Waters, Charles R. Murphy and George W. Meem; for county commission-ers, Laurence A. White and John Walter Carroll; for county surveyor, Charles J. Maddox, jr.
Prohibition—For sheriff, John P. Ray; for judges of the orphans' court, Robert T.
Mullinix, Milton Boyer and Louis H. Duvall; for county surveyor, Alburn H. Wat-kins.

The prohibitionists and Anti-Saloon The prohibitionists and Anti-Saloon League have indorsed the following candi-dates: For the house of delegates, James E. Deets, Columbus W. Day and Alban G. Thomas; for state's attorney, Henry Maurice Talbott; for county commissioners, Laurence A. White and William Eggleston Ward.

It looks very much as if it will be very close tomorrow between the state candi-dates. The democratic leaders are claiming 400 plurality for Smith. They give no reasons for this claim, and it appears to be based upon the hope that the independents who voted for Lowndes four years ago, when the county gave only eight demo-cratic plurality, will vote the democratic ticket this time. Those who are managing the republican campaign say if the demo the republican campaign say if the demo-crats carry the county at all it will be by a small margin—probably by not more than 100 votes. In support of this contention they state that the republican party was never in such good shape as in the present centest; that the democratic majority in the county, which has been gradually growing smaller for several years past, is now not more than 250, and that a sufficient number of independents will vote the republican state ticket to make the result close and uncertain. All things considered, the chances seem to favor a small plurality for Smith.

for Smith.

The contest for the county offices is complicated, and at no time during the campaign has it been more so than on the eve of the election. One thing is certain—that there will be an unprecedented amount of scratching done, and both sides are sure to suffer. Most of this scratching will be done by the saloon and anti-saloon people, and the inability to form any definite idea as to the relative strength of these influences renders the result exceedingly uncertain. Personal feeling will also enter
